Conditions of Entry

"Horse Riding can be a dangerous sport"

"The Western Equestrian Society has taken all reasonable steps to ensure the Health & Safety of spectators, competitors and everyone else present. For these measures to be effective, everyone must take all possible precautions to avoid and prevent accidents occurring and must obey the instructions of the Organisers and Stewards".

- 1. Neither the Western Equestrian Society nor Ingliston Country Club nor the Show Management shall be held responsible for any loss, damage or expense incurred to any person or horse at the show from whatever cause arising. All entries shall be at the sole risk of the competitor.
- 2. All objections must be made in writing to the show manager, and must be received on the day of the show, accompanied by a deposit of £10 which will be returned if the objection is sustained.
- 3. The organisers, at their own discretion, may at any time, before, or during the show, reject any entry whether the same has been accepted or not, and their decision in this respect, without giving any reason, shall be final. The organisers shall have the power to eject from the showground any person whose behaviour they consider to be objectionable.
- 4. No unauthorised person may enter the ring.
- 5. All competitors must be conversant with the rules of the Western Equestrian Society. Neither the Society, nor the organisers will be held responsible for the failure of any competitor to understand these rules.
- 6. All competitors entering the AQHA Amateur classes must be conversant with the rules of the American Quarter Horse Association. Neither the Society, nor the organisers will be held responsible for the failure of any competitor to understand these rules.
- 7. All competitors must have third party liability insurance and by entering are stating that they have such insurance in force.
